

The FCC should stay out of the states' laws regarding the Telephone Privacy Act, unless it's to broaden the range of solicitors to include newspapers and all the ones currently excluded. We have enjoyed the reduction in telephone solicitors and would like more added to the list. Solicitors are especially detrimental and a nuisance to senior citizens.